Times New Roman typeface,

12-point font size

One-inch margins,

Indent the first line of every paragraph,
paragraphs with three or more sentences,

Title pages and all text elements should be formatted with the 12-point Times New Roman typeface with no other graphics attached.

APA style should also be used for citations and references; many sources of APA guidelines can be found on the Internet. To allow professors to consistently evaluate student submissions,

One-and-a-half spacing between lines of text and paragraph. This means that there is no double spacing between paragraphs or excessive spacing between sections.

Regardless of the assignment, the usage of bullets and outlines is prohibited in course submissions.

All observations must be written in the form of complete sentences. Submissions must meet the minimum page length established for each assignment.
